

SPECIAL Summer Opportunity for Concordia Students

Learn Arabic, Japanese, Korean, or Portuguese at Concordia Language Villages while earning Concordia College credits! Gain a valuable internship experience! Pay only regular summer school tuition!

Free room and board is provided for students who register for Global Studies 390 (co-operative education) and are hired to work as unpaid counselor-interns. The student will be mentored by an experienced counselor while engaging in activities that facilitate language learning and cultural competence. A Concordia College professor will serve as faculty supervisor of the co-op.

Which language will you choose?

Arabic Japanese Korean Portuguese

- Eligibility: All Concordia College students are eligible; no prior knowledge of the language is required.
- Dates: July 11-August 14, 2011 (Korean, Japanese, Portuguese) or July 18-August 21, 2011 (Arabic)
- Total cost: $2960 (Concordia tuition for 4 summer school credits)
- Contact: Ken Foster (foster@cord.edu or 299-3528) for more detailed information

Information session: February 15, Old Main 301 at 6:30 p.m.

Act quickly –
only a very limited number of spots are available